

Love learning, start singing

Vocal Leader Checklist

Good Vocal Leaders are:

Engaging

They are flexible, responsive and share their enthusiasm to create enjoyable, relevant and well-paced sessions.

Supportive

They respect group members, value effort, celebrate achievements and encourage reflection.

Inclusive

They enable all group members to participate, by taking different abilities into account and respecting everyone's contribution.

Supportive of progression

They are willing to try a range of approaches that help people improve, highlighting opportunities for development.

Effective communicators

They employ appropriate verbal and non-verbal methods of communication enabling all group members to understand and learn to the best of their abilities.

Creative

They encourage experimentation and invention, using a range of different approaches and ideas.

Committed to Learning

They are open-minded and eager to learn and take responsibility for their own continuing professional development.

Musical

They are committed to developing their own musical skills; they embrace a diverse range of music; are able to challenge a group appropriately and; find ways to explore different forms of musical expression.

Community-focussed

They are committed to an ethos of collaboration, partnership and developing connections.

Caring about the voice

They understand good vocal health, and care for the voices of others as well as their own.